

The Time Will Come

Em Am G B E

Booting up to, Plugging in to reconNect, reach Out Is someone Out there, is Anyone out there, is Anything getting Out?

Em Am G B E

Through a Cable, to enAble, some-One to catch this Call somewhere far Out there, someBody might know where There's someone to recall

Em Am G B E

There Has been the time, oh there Has been the time do you reMEmber the time, when we Could take Off, and emBrace, meet in Places where we'd Face a stranger's Hand, and a friendly touch - I'm sure you Would!

All the Memories we're made of, all the journeys that are laid off all the plans we held on, they // moved on We are far out in the open, in an ocean that has broken all the links we took for granted // far to long

So we are turning to our screens, not certain what that even means we all are exiled to these walls, except we are all sharing this dream, in which united we stream trying to reconnect

And there's gonna be the day, when we're singing and dancing
And there's gonna be the day, we'll be singing and dancing
And there's gonna be the Day when we're Singing and dancing, singing together again

And there's gonna be the Day when we're Singing and dancing again
And there's gonna be the Day when we're Singing and dancing again
And there will be the day when we're singing and dancing again
And there will be the day when we're singing together again
And there will be the day when we're singing together again
